Conference approved pamphlet, page 13, of "Self-Support: Where Money and Spirituality Mix."

"Once the basic group expenses have been taken care of, for example: (rent, refreshments, A.A. literature, Grapevine literature, local meeting lists, G.S.R. travel expenses to attend service functions), and a "prudent reserve" has been set aside to cover any emergency contingencies that might arise, the group may decide to further carry the message by sending money to the following A.A. service entities.":

You can find out which of AREA 13 - WAGSA's 13 districts your AA group falls into or if your district has a treasurer, by connecting with the District Committee Member (DCM) representing your district region, or visit "Districts" online at www.area13aa.org.

Contact your group's District Committee Member (DCM) to find out how checks should be made out.

Q.) Doesn't all A.A. money go into one pot?
In other words, when our group contributes to central office (intergroup), isn't our money distributed to the area, district and G.S.O., as well?
A.) No. Each A.A. entity — group, district, area, central office and G.S.O. — provides a specific service and is autonomous. Each is separate from the other.
