STEP 12: SERVICE

The twelfth word on my bedraggled 3" x 5" card was Service. My sponsor said while Step 12 incorporated service, there were really three parts to this step. The first part was "Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps..." Since I got into A.A., I had always wanted one of those spiritual experiences that Bill W. and many other A.A.'s had experienced and felt disappointed that it didn't happen to me. Under my sponsor's tutelage, I realized I had had the "educational variety" of a spiritual experience by working the steps. While not dramatic, it was a good, solid spiritual awakening and I became grateful.

The second part of Step 12 was, "...we tried to carry this message to alcoholics..." -She said the emphasis was on "tried". We couldn't force anyone to accept our message of recovery and we also couldn't take credit or responsibility for someone else's sobriety. All we could do was share our own experience, strength, and hope. She told me to reread Chapter 7 in the Big Book to learn what being of service is and what it is not. She said once I had completed the twelve steps, I was ready to carry the message and do service work.

In the beginning, my service work was limited to helping set up tables and chairs for meetings, washing coffee cups and ashtrays, mopping floors, and cleaning bathrooms. After I had a year of sobriety, I began sponsoring women, guiding them through the steps. Over the years, I've done all sorts of service work; chairing meetings, being a speaker, finding speakers, being the group treasurer and later the group secretary. I've been an Intergroup Representative and Group Service Representative. I've been a Central Office Volunteer and here in Tucson, I've had a Home Answering Service shift for years. Throughout my sobriety, I have always been a sponsor and this has helped me stay sober and the women I have sponsored have enriched my life. My A.A. birthday is on Christmas Day, so I like to take an extra Home Answering Service shift and then volunteer at the Christmas Alcolthon on Christmas Eve.

The third part of Step 12 is "...to practice these principles in all our affairs." I have learned it is not enough to do it just one time and call it good. I've got to bring these principles into every area of my life, all the time, in big things and small. Of course I forget a lot! But, prayer, meditation, meetings and talking with another alcoholic remind me. Sometimes, during times of crisis, I desperately need a spiritual tune up. So, I go back to the steps and rework them from Step 1 through Step 12. This has gotten me through some very difficult times and I know I have awakened spiritually some more.

All I can say is working the steps and practicing the principles has opened my consciousness to the goodness of life and the joy of living. Being sober in A.A. has been the best thing that ever happened to me!

(Excerpt from The Central Bulletin, "The A.A. Program – Spiritual But Never Religious)

What About This Spiritual Awakening Thing?

Nevertheless, the phrase "spiritual awakening," found in the Twelfth Step and throughout A.A. literature, remains daunting to many beginners. For some, it conjures up a dramatic "conversion" experience - not an appealing idea to an alcoholic just coming off a drunk. To others, beaten down by years of steady drinking, it seems completely out of reach. But for those who persevere, ongoing sobriety almost invariably brings the realization that - in some wonderful and unexpected way - they have indeed experienced a spiritual change.

Spirituality, A.A. style, is the result of action. Step Twelve begins, "Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these Steps.. ." (italics added), and in the book Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions (page 106), Bill W. describes what happens: "Maybe there are as many definitions of spiritual awakening as there are people who have had them. But certainly each genuine one has something in common with all the others.... When a man or woman has a spiritual awakening, the most important meaning of it is that he has now become able to do, feel, and believe that which he could not do before on his unaided strength and resources alone. He has been granted a gift which amounts to a new state of consciousness and being. He has been set on a path which tells him he is really going somewhere, that life is not a dead end, not something to be endured or mastered. In a very real sense he has been transformed, because he has laid hold of a source of strength which, in one way or another, he had hitherto denied himself."

Tradition 12

Anonymity, as we observe it in AA, is at root a simple expression of humility. When we use the Twelve Steps to recover from alcoholism, we are each trying to achieve real humility, to put our self-respect on a solid base of truth, rather than on fantasies about ourselves. When we use the Twelve Traditions to work together in AA, we are all trying to achieve humility; as individual members, by recognising our true place in AA; as a fellowship, by recognizing AA's true place in the world.

Tradition One reminds each of us that we are not recovering on our own, that we should control our personal desires and ambitions in order to guard the unity of our group and our Fellowship. We ought not (Tradition Two) fancy ourselves as big shots in AA, no matter what office we hold.

All of us are just alcoholics together, and in our groups we are not entitled (Tradition Three) to rule on the qualifications of other alcoholics seeking the same help that we've had. Yes, a group needs humility too. It may make its name public, but in the spirit of anonymity it should see the Whatever Group as merely part of a bigger whole (Tradition Four), careful in every enterprise to consider the welfare of all the other groups that make up AA. In both group and individual activities, we should remember what the full name of our Fellowship is. It does not represent any established religion, nor is it a new religion. We are not evangelists or gurus out to save humanity; we are anonymous alcoholics trying to help other alcoholics (Tradition Five).

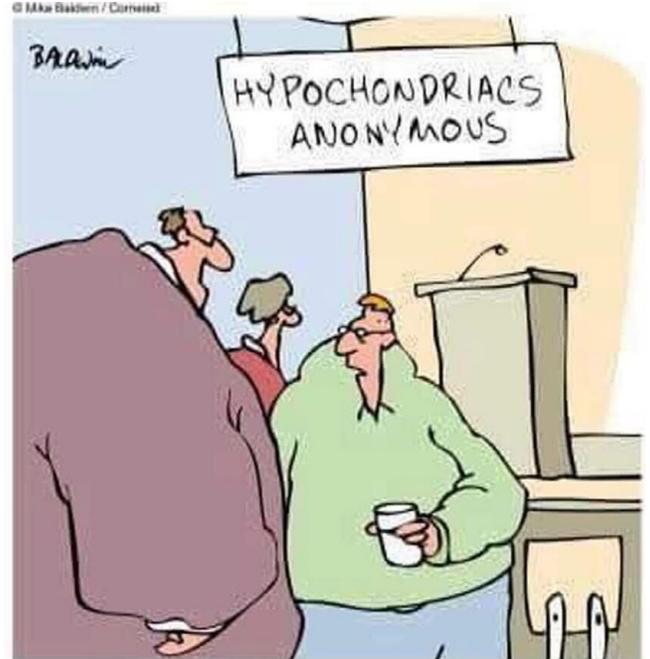

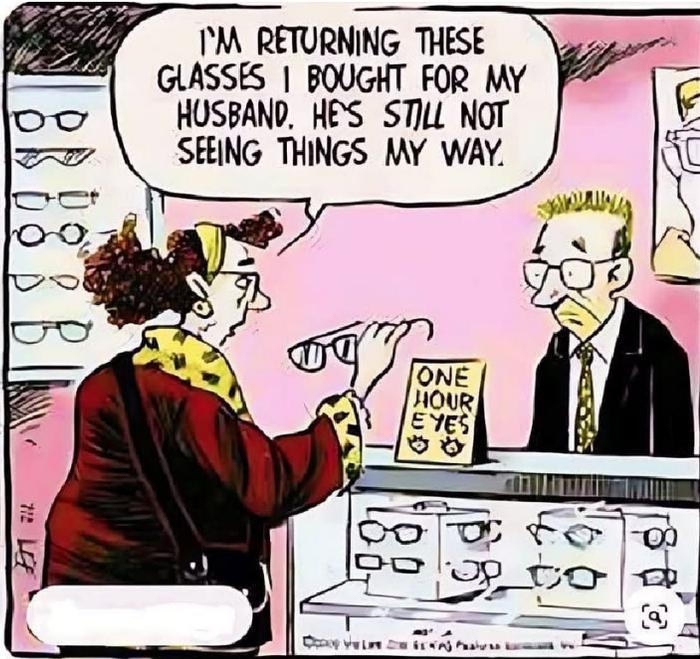

In the rising battle against alcoholism, we ought not let our pride in AA mislead us into linking our Fellowship with other agencies, in order to bid for a share in their power, prestige, and funds. If we keep Tradition Six and Seven in mind, we will instead direct all our efforts toward AA's own unique purpose.

When we go on Twelfth Step calls, we should not tell ourselves how noble we are for doing such valuable work without pay. The meaning of Twelfth Step work cannot be measured in money (Tradition Eight), and we have received advance pay for it, in coin of far greater worth—our very lives. In the same Tradition, it's suggested that a service centre maintains AA humility by paying its employees decent wages—rather than considering AA so virtuous an outfit that employment there is a favour.

When we are given special responsibilities within AA, Tradition Nine defines these as opportunities to serve, not titles to flaunt. The humility of the Fellowship itself is safeguarded by Tradition Ten, with the refusal to set ourselves up as general authorities, swinging our collective weight around in the public arena.

We do not want to sell our program as a "surefire remedy" in the extravagant terms of a promotional campaign (Tradition Eleven), or dramatise it by identifying noted people in AA, thereby implying that recovery has been for each of us an individual accomplishment. As Tradition Twelve reminds us, we have something stronger than our human personalities to rely on. Our principles come first—and they are not our own invention. They reflect eternal spiritual values. With this Tradition, both as individuals and as a fellowship, we humbly acknowledge our dependence on a power higher than ourselves.

3 drunk guys entered a taxi. The taxi driver knew that they were drunk so he started the engine & turned it off again. Then said, "We have reached your destination". The 1st guy gave him money & the 2nd guy said "Thank you". The 3rd guy slapped the driver. The driver was shocked thinking the 3rd drunk knew what he did. But then he asked "What was that for?". The 3rd guy replied, "Control your speed next time, you nearly killed us!"

Twelve Tips on Keeping Your Holiday Season Sober and Joyous

Holiday parties without liquid spirits may still seem a dreary prospect to new A.A.s. But many of us have enjoyed the happiest holidays of our lives sober — an idea we would never have dreamed of, wanted, or believed possible when drinking. Here are some tips for having an all-round ball without a drop of alcohol.

1 Line up extra A.A. activities for the holiday season. Arrange to take newcomers to meetings, answer the phones at a clubhouse or central office, speak, help with dishes, or visit the alcoholic ward at a hospital.

5 Skip any drinking occasion you are nervous about. Remember how clever you were at excuses when drinking? Now put the talent to good use. No office party is as important as saving your life.

9 Don't sit around brooding. Catch up on those books, museums, walks, and letters.

2 Be host to A.A. friends, especially newcomers. If you don't have a place where you can throw a formal party, take one person to a diner and spring for the coffee.

6 If you have to go to a drinking party and can't take an A.A. with you, keep some candy handy.

10 Don't start now getting worked up about all those holiday temptations. Remember — “one day at a time.”

3 Keep your A.A. telephone list with you all the time. If a drinking urge or panic comes — postpone everything else until you've called an A.A.

7 Don't think you have to stay late. Plan in advance an “important date” you have to keep.

11 Enjoy the true beauty of holiday love and joy. Maybe you cannot give material gifts — but this year, you can give love.

4 Find out about the special holiday parties, meetings, or other celebrations given by groups in your area, and go. If you're timid, take someone newer than you are.

8 Worship in your own way.

12 “Having had a . . .” No need to spell out the Twelfth Step here, since you already know it.
